Investment

Exclusivity being our forte, we have three categories with similar modules of treatment.

Plush Villas - One to Three Clients Treatment

For a 4-week residential program, our treatment fees range from 500,000 to 700,000 INR. Detoxification from the substance(s) is an additional cost. (Each client arrives at our facility in a distinct physical and psychological state during their chemical withdrawal, hence detoxification costs can vary). The duration of the program is a minimum of eight weeks and can be extended further depending on the client's health, needs, and requirement.

Exclusive Single Client Treatment

The tailor-made single-client residential treatment process is 20,00,000 INR per 4 weeks. Depending on how the client responds to the treatment, this module of therapy lasts between four and six weeks or more. In this setting, therapy sessions per day are more intense and last longer. Detoxification is included in the cost.

Destination treatment

We are partnered with luxurious and exclusive properties at various destinations across the world. "Destination Therapy" involves transporting Anatta's module with our select team that treats clients at unique destinations across the globe keeping the client's preferences in mind
